The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
3	Mandatory Condition: While on supervised release, the defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of supervised release is mandatory for possession of a controlled substance. On May 17, 2018, a U.S. Probation Officer met with and reviewed the judgment and sentence which outlined the conditions of supervised release. Mr. Reyes signed the judgment and sentence acknowledging he understood the requirements of supervision and he was provided with a copy of the document.

On December 10, 2018, U.S. Probation Officers, with the assistance of officers from the Columbia River Drug Task Force conducted a search of Mr. Reyes' apartment, 2833 Euclid

Avenue, in Wenatchee, Washington. During the search, officers discovered a small plastic bag that contained a white powdery substance on the floor of Mr. Reyes' bedroom, a small glass container with a white substance on top of the dresser in Mr. Reyes' bedroom and an empty Marlboro cigarette container with a black tar like substance behind the dresser in Mr. Reyes' bedroom.

At the conclusion of the search, a detective from the Columbia River Drug Task Force took possession of the alleged controlled substances and field tested them on December 11, 2018. The white powdery substance field tested positive for methamphetamine and the substance in the Marlboro cigarette container field tested positive for heroin. The detective is requesting felony charges be filed against Mr. Reyes for possession of a controlled substance; case number 18C13939. At the time this report was written, charges have not been filed.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant and incorporate the violation contained in this petition in future proceeding with the violations previously reported to the Court on 11/26/2018, and 12/7/2018.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
